Interlochen Center for the Arts - Hotel Housekeeper

HOST INFORMATION

Company Description:

Located in beautiful northern Michigan, our 1,200-acre campus is surrounded by nature and nestled between two lakes. Interlochen is a hub of creative energy, where artists and arts enthusiasts find inspiration and connection.

Interlochen Arts Camp has an expansive campus which has more than 400 buildings, facilities, and venues that cover an array of artistic areas.

As an Interlochen employee, every position has an impact. Employees will enjoy living on campus and access to Stone Cafeteria where complimentary meals feature local, organic, vegetarian, and vegan options. Employees also have access to our recreation and wellness facility. For the arts, you have the opportunity to volunteer and watch national touring acts. Employees also receive free tickets to student performances in all disciplines.

Outside Interlochen's beautiful campus is Traverse City, a city that was recently named one of the nation's top-ten arts-vibrant communities. Traverse City hosts the National Cherry Festival each year in July. Interlochen has a bus stop for the BATA bus that makes regular stops to and from Traverse City. Students may purchase a discounted summer bus pass to visit local tourist locations, stores, malls, movie theaters and more.

Perks of Employment:

- On Site Housing - either Rustic Cabins or Dorms depending on arrival dates and availability.
- Three (3) free meals at our Dining Halls during meal times.
- Cell phone with internet/wifi service included with rent

ARRIVAL INFORMATION

Arrival Instructions:

Work & Travel participants are welcome to arrive via plane, bus, or car to Interlochen Arts Camps. Students are to arrive Sunday through Tuesday of their start week. All students will begin working at Interlochen Center for the Arts on a Wednesday, with a Welcome Orientation.

Our Transportation Team will pick students up at the Bus Station in Traverse City or at Cherry Capital Airport in Traverse City. Once students know their travel plans, students can click on a Transportation Link to schedule our Transportation team to pick them up at either the Traverse City bus station or airport and then shortly arrive at Interlochen's campus to check in. The ride from the airport to Interlochen's campus is about 25 minutes. We are only able to offer pick up service at the bus station or airport in Traverse City. Ideally, Work & Travel participants will send their travel itinerary to our Transportation Team no later than early April.

We will instruct students how to apply and visit the local Social Security office if necessary at the start of summer. A small grocery market, Tom's, is a short walk away or just one bus stop north.

Any questions on transportation can be referred to summerhr@interlochen.org.
